

HISTORY STARTS HERE

When basketball players Kelly Scott, C'09, and Cameron Lewis, W'09; and volleyball player Anne Magnuson, C'10, step onto the golden floor of the Palestra, they proudly stand upon 81 years of sports history – and very quickly experience the promise of the future under their feet. The state-of-the-art Palestra floor, installed this past summer, not only provides a safer surface for today's stronger and faster athletes, but also hints at the many athletic and recreational improvements in store for the entire Penn community through Making History: The Campaign for Penn.

Through Making History, we are re-imagining the campus by creating the open space and playing fields that will beautify our environment and enrich the Penn experience for students, alumni, faculty, and staff.

Raising funds for campus development is a top campaign priority. To learn more, contact Lisa McClatchy, Campaign Director, at 215.898.7922 or visit www.makinghistory.upenn.edu

From the George A. Weiss Pavilion and the Robert A. Fox Recreation Fitness Center to the Dunning-Cohen Champions' Field and the Lynn B. and Clay W. Hamlin Outdoor Tennis Center, the facility upgrades and projects planned for the eastern end of campus will provide our student-athletes with the resources they need to excel and will give everyone at Penn superior recreational spaces to enjoy. It adds up to a new level of beauty and vitality for all who spend time on campus.

This is Penn. History Starts Here.
